

Prelude

Welcome

Opening Words (Rev. Dr. Laurel Koepf Taylor)

One: The prophets of old spoke of God's justice, even when it was unwelcome.

Who will hear their message?

Many: We will listen and we will hear!

One: Responding to God's call, Jesus traveled, preaching and teaching all who would listen. Who will hear his message?

Many: We will listen and we will hear!

One: Christ sent out disciples two by two, to spread the good news in any place that would welcome them. Who will hear their message?

Many: We will listen and we will hear!

One: God's prophets are among us still, around the world and in these pews. Who will hear their message?

Many: We will listen and we will hear!

Opening Hymn Hymnal #575 "O For a World"

Prayer of Invocation (John W. Howell)

O God who is love, when you seem so far away from us, remind us to reach within to the fountain of feelings at the core of ourselves and there, let us find you. When you seem so unconcerned, so massive, so impassive, so insulated by your power, so distant by your expansiveness, remind us to reach out to the hand of a child, to the face of a friend, and there let us find you. And in times when we have nothing to feel and there is no one to touch, let us never close our hearts or our hands, but always, let us be open to you, and let us be open today; here and now. Amen.

Sacred Reading:

Jeremiah 8:18-9:1

My joy is gone.

There is no cure for my grief. My heart is sick. Hear the cry of distress of my people from a distant land:

“Is the Holy One not in Zion? Is its ruler not there anymore?”

“Why do they provoke me with their carved images, with their useless foreign gods?”

“The harvest is past, summer is ended and we are not saved.”

“I am devastated, for my people are devastated. I mourn. Terror grips me. Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there? Why then has the health of my people not been attended to? Oh, that my head were a spring of water and my eyes a fountain of tears, so that I might weep day and night for the slain of my people!”

For the wisdom contained in these holy words we give thanks. Amen.
