Prayer of Invocation (Worship Ways)

O God, all people are your Beloved, across races, nationalities, religions, sexual orientations and all the ways we are distinctive from one another.
We are all manifestations of your image.
We are bound together in an inescapable network of mutuality and tied to a single garment of destiny.
You call us into your unending work
of justice, peace and love.
Let us know your presence among us now:
Let us delight in our diversity
that offers glimpses of the mosaic of your beauty.
Strengthen us with your steadfast love and transform our despairing fatigue into hope-filled action.
Under the shadow of your wings in this hour
may we find rest and strength, renewal and hope.
We ask this, in Jesus' name. Amen.

Sacred Readings

John 13:31a, 34-35

When he had gone out, Jesus said, I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.'

-- Bernice King

My father literally fought his entire life to ensure the inclusion of all people because he understood that we were intertwined and connected together in humanity.

--Verna Myers

"Diversity is being invited to the party; inclusion is being asked to dance,"

For the wisdom contained in these holy words we give thanks. Amen.

Prayer of Dedication (in front of binder)

Gracious God, we give thanks.

We ask your blessings on these gifts of time,
talent, and treasure as we use them to do

Your work in the world. Amen

Rainbow Fish Tree

The Rainbow Fish Tree is an Epiphany tradition for our congregation. After Christmas, the tree in our sanctuary is decorated with a bright rainbow fish. We process to the front during the closing hymn and place ornaments on the Rainbow Fish Tree in symbolic commitment to a new world. Today we place colored fish on the tree indicating our commitment to work in solidarity with all to achieve well-being, justice and equity for God's creation through our inclusivity in our diversity..
