Welcome

Opening Words

Opening Hymn Binder #77 “Jesus Christ is Waiting”

Prayer of Invocation (Worship Design Studio)

The temple of the world can be a busy, noisy place, O God.
Too often the rule is, “everyone out for themselves.”
Too often we don’t stop to think about how our actions affect others.
Forgive us.
Turn us toward the temple of our hearts
where you await.
You entered our story through Jesus,
now help us to enter fully into the story of your kin-dom on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

Prayers of the People (Lord’s Prayer in binder)

Communion (prayer in binder)

Minister: As we gather around the table to be nourished by this meal we remember that this is not our table this is God's table and that means all are welcome at this table. The bread is gluten free and there is grape juice in the cup.

Come, Holy Spirit, and move among these elements assembled at this Table. Through this sacrament, transform our hurt into healing, our fear into faith, and death into life. As the grain, sown in hills and valleys, is harvested, and now becomes one in the loaf, so we scattered, diverse, separated and isolated from one another, hear your invitation to become one body around this Table, the center of our life together.

Liturgist: As this juice, grown in vineyards under the sun, fills the cup, may we be filled and refreshed by this meal, and strengthened to respond to your call to reach out in compassion to all living things.

Minister: In sharing this meal we remember meals Jesus shared with friends and enemies, outcasts and marginalized, fearful and earnest. He took the bread and, giving thanks, blessed it and broke it and shared it with his friends as a symbol of his sacrifice. As we share the bread today, we eat it as those who seek to follow Jesus.

Liturgist: After the meal, Jesus took the cup. Giving thanks, he shared it with his friends, symbolizing a new relationship with God, a relationship of partnership founded on grace. As we share the cup, we seek to experience that grace in which Jesus lived fully and together around the table we pray.

Many: Come, Holy Spirit, come.
Bless this bread and bless this fruit of the vine.
Bless all of us in our eating and drinking that our eyes might be opened,
that we might recognize the risen Christ in our midst, indeed, in one another.
Come, Holy Spirit, come.

Communion Response Binder #46 “As-salaamu-Lakum”

Let us pray with thanksgiving (in binder)

Gracious God, you have once again shown us your love by bringing us to this meal.

We go from here renewed in faith,
renewed in courage,
and strengthened by your presence.

Thank you for loving us so tenderly.

Thank you for challenging us to know you better and to receive you more fully. Amen

How shall we join God’s work in the world?

Hymnal #514 “Over My Head”

Prayer of Dedication (in binder)

Gracious God, we give thanks.

We ask your blessings on these gifts of time, talent, and treasure as we use them to join

Your work in the world. Amen
