Activity Packet
Scripture

Mira and the artist designed a plan to bring everyone together in the neighborhood. People of all ages, races, and walks of life committed themselves to the common good of reviving their community through art.

Here is what Paul said in his letter to the people in Corinth about living in community and caring for one another.

"Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing, but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never ends." 1Corinthians 13:4-8
Dancing

Everyone was dancing and painting. The whole neighborhood became a giant block party.

Learn a dance using the links below or create your own dance. Invite your family to dance with you.

Maybe Something Beautiful
Sensory Bin

Gather any foam pieces, ribbon scraps, pom poms, pipe cleaners, felt pieces, tissue paper, scraps of colorful paper, or other art materials that you have at home and put them in a container. Then select materials from your container to place on the table and create something beautiful. When you are finished take a picture of your art and then place the art materials back in the container. You can reuse these art materials to make a different picture later.
Something Beautiful Yard Art

1. Gather some rocks from outside, paint them, and then place them in your yard by the sidewalk or driveway.
2. Gather sticks, gumballs, rocks, and anything else from nature you can find. Use these materials to spell messages of love or hope. Then place them by your sidewalk or driveway.
3. Create a picture or write a poem using sidewalk chalk on the sidewalk by your house.
Something Beautiful Accordion Book

1. You will need paper, crayons, markers, colored pencils, or paint.
2. Fold your paper forward and back like an accordion.
3. Then use your art supplies to create pictures about love and community in your book.
