My Family

All loving families are real no matter who is in your family. Love is Love!

Draw a picture of your family.

My Friends

We hope you are able to be proud of who you are, who your family members are, and who your friends are.

These are my friends.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a child to draw or write about their friends.

The Rainbow Flag

Gilbert Baker created the rainbow flag in 1978. The rainbow flag, which has become a universal symbol of hope for LGBTQ people around the world. The rainbow flag has become a powerful worldwide symbol of love and acceptance.

Rainbow Heart

Create a rainbow heart using markers, crayons, or construction paper to remind yourself that in God's creation everyone is different, and God loves each of us just as we are.

Rainbow Bracelet

Create rainbow bracelet using pony beads. The bracelet will be something you can wear and take with you, and every time you see it you will be reminded of how much God loves you just as you are.
